ABOUT THIS WINERY

Our history starts in 1832 with Adam Henkell. Pioneering spirit, discoverer and man of pleasure. First he established a wine store in Mainz. Exclusively for French wines. Driven by his experimentalism and the idea of combining the best of two worlds, he created an entirely new composition of French Cuvée and German craftsmanship in 1856: Henkell Dry.

TASTING NOTES

Colour: natural, strong salmon pink with orange reflections

Mousse: finely beaded, lingering

Bouquet: fresh aroma of red berries, underpinned by a hint of strawberry

Flavour: harmonious interplay between sweet and sour, berry-like fruity body, lingering finish

PRODUCTION NOTES

The art of French cuvée meets German craftsmanship: finely beaded Henkell Rosé is a refreshing, elegant sparkling wine created from selected red grape varieties. Its distinguished, gently fruity, berry-like flavour is the pinnacle of enjoyment for anyone who appreciates rosé with an international, dry character. Henkell Rosé's finely arranged, harmonic composition makes for a well-rounded, complete taste experience.
