ABOUT THIS WINERY

For more than a century and a Bertani has made wines that are recognizable for their identity, wines with a clear and therefore unmistakable stylistic profile.

TASTING NOTES

The typical aromas of the Sauvignon are tangy on the nose; sage, ripe peach, elderflower and green pepper. The Pinot Grigio dominates on the palate, with good balance between tanginess and crisp acidity. A lingering aftertaste. Perfect as an aperitif, it goes well with salads, delicate-flavoured pasta dishes and white meat.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Grapes are fermented separately at 68°F. The two wines are blended in January after harvest, transferred to Stainless Steel and remain on their lees until the summer. The Pinot Grigio gives structure and elegance, Sauvignon Blanc lends aroma and freshness.
