ABOUT THIS WINERY

Nature can be cultivated, but not easily tamed. While steeped in the landscape of Alto Adige (South Tyrol), which is shaped by timeless traditions of agriculture, Alois Lageder is equally open to the spirit of the modern world: his convictions have led him to opt for a way of life that is close to nature, and supports sustainable methods of operation.

TASTING NOTES

Cherry red with a ruby shimmer, quite aromatic, fruity (plum), licorice notes, cacao, spicy, floral. Full bodied, intense, linear, well-balanced, silky, well integrated tannins.
