ABOUT THIS WINERY

The original distillery dating back to 1810 has finally succumbed to old age. In 1963, we decided to rebuild it and help revive the local community. Jura whiskey comes from a land of contrasts. From a wild shore and its rugged rocks beaten by the sea on one side, to secluded bays with their sandy beaches and calm waters on the other.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Off the west coast of Scotland, the Isle of Jura is a place famed as much for its folklore as it is for its whisky. A magical haven where a sense of solitude pervades: one road, one pub, one community and one distillery. There is no whisky and no island quite like Jura. It is aged in bourbon casks for 10 years and has the lingering taste of maple syrup with gentle notes of honey, caramel and soft liquorice.
