ABOUT THIS WINERY

The goal at Mission Hill is to ensure that future generations of farmers will continue to produce the Okanagan Valley's finest grapes and visitors will be able to enjoy the area's majestic beauty. Sustainability is critical to that long-term success. As a family-owned winery with strict control over the operations, vineyards, and quality they are able to infuse sustainability into a variety of stages both in the vineyards and at the winery.

TASTING NOTES

This vibrant red displays black cherry and licorice notes which are framed by hints of mint chocolate and orange peel. The 2012 Quatrain is a rich and dense red with a long savoury aftertaste that is reminiscent of mincemeat tarts. Balanced with a firm, earthy finish.

VITICULTURAL NOTES

Hand harvested from Osoyoos (80%) & Oliver (20%) vineyards in September & October 2012
Fermentation & extended maceration in small French Oak Fermenters
Aged in French oak barrels for 14 months | 82 barrels produced
Bottled on December 03, 2014
